Puck Bay, July 2008

EuroCup 2008

Annual, the most important event of European sailors: ORVALDI EURO CUP 2008 class Skippi650 was played in the waters of the Bay of Puck in July 2008! The regatta involved 32 yachts, 101 sailors from several countries. The high level of sea sailing competition every year attracts a large number of racing enthusiasts. Three crew boats were extremely well prepared for racing. There weren't strong favorites.

With the beautiful sailing weather, the variables of wind power from 2B to 5 B within 3 days, 10 races took place. Emotions reached the top when during the last race, the first five prizes was still not settled and the fierce battle for victory last until the last meters. Winner crew received the Navy Cup founded by the main sponsor ORVALDI POWER PROTECTION.

Thanks to sailors and owners, sporting attitude in heavy and exciting battle on the races games were so interesting and exciting process. Looking for competition has been a great experience for many visitors and tourists gathered in the Bay of Puck.

Hard competition starts from a very beginning.
